

Scholarship Application 2010-2011 Academic Year

We are pleased to encourage and assist students to achieve their academic goals by annually awarding full and partial scholarships to West Virginia University at Parkersburg students.

Scholarships awarded by the WVU at Parkersburg Foundation support students who attend the WVU at Parkersburg Campus, the Jackson County Center, or the Pleasants County PRT Center automotive program. In order to qualify for a WVU at Parkersburg Foundation Scholarship, students must FIRST apply for admission to WVU at Parkersburg and THEN fully complete the Foundation Scholarship application.

Foundation Scholarship Awards are selected with careful attention to and consideration of the wishes of its donors. Please review all scholarship criteria to ensure that your application is complete and appropriate. Be advised that the majority of academically based scholarships require the following:

Graduating High School Seniors: Minimum of a 22 ACT or 3.2 cumulative GPA

Current College Students: Minimum 3.2 cumulative GPA

GED Graduates: Submit GED Test Score

How to Apply

1. Apply for admission to WVU at Parkersburg or be a currently enrolled student.
2. Complete all sections of the Application and send to:

WVU at Parkersburg Financial Aid Office
