

Alternative Delivery System Courses – ADS courses involve non-traditional instruction for up to 80% of the course content. Typically, no more than five class meetings will be required for each course. Computer and Internet access along with an e-mail account are mandatory. Please read the Primary Delivery Method Column of the ADS Class table carefully before registering for a course. Students may be required to come to campus to view course content at the college Library or Media Center. Students may need to be familiar with E-Campus for some courses. Additional software (MS Office XP, Quick Books, etc.) or free plug-ins (Adobe Reader, RealPlayer, etc.) may be required. Check with the instructor for specific course requirements.
