

August, 2001

Dear WVU at Parkersburg Student:

We are so pleased to have you as a student at WVU at Parkersburg! As you begin a new academic year, you will find that WVU at Parkersburg offers a wide variety of challenging and rewarding courses. Our faculty and staff are here to see that you get the best education and services possible.

You have made a commitment to further your education and, in doing so, have made an investment in your future. You will find a variety of educational opportunities which will develop your talents and make your time here even more meaningful and rewarding. I encourage you to participate in the many activities available on campus, such as student government, intramural sports, the arts, clubs, and student publications.

The WVU at Parkersburg Student Handbook has been prepared for you as a reference and guide. We have included such information as student-oriented policies, institutional guidelines, and state policies, in an effort to help clarify your rights and responsibilities as a student. Your success as a student is our number one concern. Please feel free to stop by any of the Student Services offices with questions.

You have made a good choice in selecting WVU at Parkersburg and we are very happy to have you as a student. I hope you have an enjoyable and successful year.

Sincerely,

Judith A. Higgs
Dean of Students