Course Learning Outcomes:

Class Piano 1 (Music 161) is designed to

1. Introduce piano study to students who have little or no previous experience at the keyboard.
2. Develop touch familiarity with the keyboard while establishing efficient practice habits that enable the student to read and respond accurately to notation and pitch.
3. To refine reading skills and provide a foundation of music fundamentals for voice or instrumental students.

Class Piano 2 (Music 162) is designed to

1. Build on the skills introduced in Class Piano 1 and provide the student with a solid foundation of keyboard skills, techniques, and music theory.
2. Introduce the student to elementary level piano music by composers of the Baroque period and Twentieth century.

Class Piano 3 (Music 163) is designed to

1. Refine skills acquired in previous piano classes of prior piano study.
2. Continue development of musicianship and awareness of appropriate musical style.
3. Help the student acquire an efficient, problem-solving approach to learning new music.

Class Piano 4 (Music 164) is designed to

1. Provide a means to strengthen reading skills
2. Encourage improvisation and playing by ear
3. Broaden the student’s keyboard experience with exposure to progressively difficult classical piano repertoire, hymn playing, and American popular music arranged in keyboard style
4. Help the student overcome any weaknesses in technique
