

EARLY COLLEGE

Student Information

Go to findmyid.wvup.edu to look up your WVUP student ID number, network ID, email address and password instructions. Complete the following information.

WVUP ID Number (student identification and user ID for OLSIS)

WVUP Network ID (username for Blackboard and campus resources)

WVUP Email Address (username for WVUP email account)

Your username and WVUP ID number are specific to you, and your passwords for those accounts should be kept confidential and not shared. Since these accounts are in your name, all transactions and communication are presumed to be done by you. Official college communication is frequently sent to these accounts and you are responsible for monitoring them regularly.
