Section 2. Policy on the Awarding of Emeritus Status

- 2.1 Those faculty members whose retirement is announced and who met the requirements of meritorious contributions to the college shall be considered for Emeritus status. ~~Emeritus appointments are normally considered for faculty members and administrators on their retirement. The faculty member or administrator must normally have served the college for at least 10 years. The review of faculty candidates begins in the departments or divisions and ends with the President. The conditions and process for awarding Emeritus Status are described in Answer Book IV-5. Emeritus Status.~~
- 2.2 The award of President Emeritus status rests with the Board of Governors, and Emeritus awards to ~~major~~ administrators rest with the President.
- 2.3 Faculty members and administrators awarded Emeritus status retain their professional titles. In every case, the term “Emeritus” follows the rank and title.
- 2.4 Emeritus faculty members and administrators have library privileges; they have the same access to the institution and to activities taking place at the institution as other faculty members and administrators ~~to athletic events~~; and they enjoy privileges designated by their departments and the college, which can may include continued access to email.
